The Acquiring Company certifies that all of the following conditions are met.

- A single entity sends bills to customers identifying it (or a trade name) as the service provider, rather than identifying the individual legal entities
- All revenues are posted to a single general ledger
- If separate revenue and expense accounts exist, they are derived from one consolidated set of books and the consolidated filing must cover all revenues contained in the consolidated books
- Customers have a single point of contact
- The consolidated filer acknowledges that process served on it would represent process served on any or all of the affiliated legal entities
- The consolidated filer agrees to document and resolve all slamming complaints that might be served on either it or any of the affiliated legal entities
- The consolidated filer obtains a separate FCC Registration Number (FRN) from those assigned to its affiliated legal entities

- The consolidated filer acknowledges that its universal service, TRS, LNP, NANPA, and regulatory fee obligations will be based on data provided in the consolidated worksheet filings, that it bears the responsibility of satisfying those obligations, and that all legal entities covered by the filing are jointly and severally liable for such obligations
- The consolidated filer acknowledges that it: (1) was not insolvent on the date it undertook to make payments on a consolidated basis or on the date of actual payments to universal service, TRS, LNP, NANPA, and regulatory fees, and did not become insolvent as a result of such undertaking or payments; (2) was not left with unreasonably small capital as a result of such undertaking or payments; and (3) was not left unable to pay debts as they matured as a result of such undertaking or payments.

Confirm: You have read and agree to these conditions.
